From Revd James Garnett

Dear Friends

This quarter begins with Pentecost, when we celebrate the birth of the church. For us in the Conwy & Prestatyn Circuit, Pentecost marks the end of our nine months of mission planning. All the Church Councils will by now have agreed a Mission Plan that puts into practice the expectation that our churches will be growing churches over the next three years.

They will be growing churches, first and foremost, by encouraging growth in discipleship of Christ: places where we can grow in compassion. They will be growing churches too by being communities of encounter, where we expect to meet new people alongside whom we learn more of what it means to love our neighbours. Our prayer is also for expanding churches – both by welcoming new people every week, but also by expanding our view of what it means to be the church. While Sunday Worship remains at the heart of our church communities, 'going to church' can involve any activity on any day of the week.

Our aim, as a Circuit, is to seek first the kingdom of God (Matthew 6:33); that is, to put compassion first in everything we do and to encourage others to do likewise. What does it mean to put compassion first in the complicated and fractured life of the 21st Century? To ask that question is to answer the call of Christ. To find at least the beginnings of an answer in community with others is to participate in the life of God's Spirit alongside those first Apostles at Pentecost.

We will celebrate the end of our planning and the beginning of our new vision with a weekend of celebrations. There will be a Pentecost Arts Day and Exhibition on Saturday 7th June, followed by a Circuit Songs of Praise on Sunday 8th – both at St John's Methodist Church in Conwy.

Then, during the summer, look out for the Circuit's new sofa that will appear in a variety of places – along with the invitation to sit for a while and talk about an occasion when you have been lost in wonder. As we welcome visitors to our churches (and our sofa), we look forward to the new experiences and impressions that they will bring – reminding us all that the holiday (or holy day) is a time of sabbath for rest, reflection and renewal.

May this summer be a time of blessing for us all,

James
