From Rev Janet Park

'One swallow does not a summer make' lilted through the theatre, as the onset of warmer weather was marked during 'The Wind in the Willows' musical earlier this year. The antics of Mr Toad were witnessed by the woodland creatures, as well as those gathered in the audience: despite the urgings of his friends, Mr Toad would not learn from his mistakes. At the close, his passion for speed was memorably illustrated by his legs dangling across the stage as he took a spin in his new flying machine! Passion driving him to ever greater, ever faster flights of fancy.

During the Annual Methodist Conference, there may have been some flights of fancy articulated in a few debates, yet we can be reassured that feet were kept firmly on the ground as business progressed and Revd Graham Thompson became President of Conference 2022/23. 'The Greatest Commandment' (Matthew 22:37-39) is his chosen theme for the year ahead, and he commented that, as the Methodist Church, "we need to go back to first principles and consider the love we have - or don't have - for God". [The complete Presidential address can be found at: <https://www.methodist.org.uk/about-us/the-methodist-conference/conference-2022/presidency/the-presidents-and-vice-presidents-addresses-to-the-methodist-conference-2022/the-presidents-address-to-the-methodist-conference-2022/>]

Various translations offer additional adjectives, helping our understanding of Christ's response to the query about the greatest commandment of all: Love the Lord your God - with passion, prayer and intelligence. This is the most important thing to do - the first on any list, with love of neighbour as self set alongside. The Message version concludes "these two commands are pegs; everything in God's law and the Prophets hangs from them."

This instruction - commandment actually - should provide our motivation throughout the coming year as we gain confidence, purpose and direction in the churches throughout our Circuit. Recent reviews and reflections will help to focus our witness and worship, as we welcome Rev Nigel Rodgers joining the Circuit staff team this year, along with his wife Lucy. We pray that they will soon settle into their new surroundings as Nigel takes up the appointment in Llandudno & Craig y Don.

Earlier this year a pair of swallows had settled into their own new surroundings, above a friend's front doorway and, when we visited in July, our friends behaved like surrogate parents as they proudly showed us five swallow siblings preparing to fledge from their tiny home. A small baton had been fixed below the nest for perching purposes when any felt led to risk stepping (or flying) over the edge of their safe haven, in the front porch. These swallows really were making for a very special summer ahead at that particular house. I pray that, together, we may do the same - moving forward in faith and hope and love.

*God who stand beyond the future, what's to come is still unknown.
Yet, unchanging, you are with us and we will not walk alone.
[Pat Bennett]*
